Tomorrow is St. Valentine's Day.

Mrs. Fred Rothlisberger is on the sick list with a case of pneumonia.

Fresh lime, and plenty of it. Call on Solomon Waite.

Mrs. Stansell Greer who has been on the sick list for sometime is reported to be on the improve.

Duane Hamblin came in from Eagar this week to attend the session of court held Monday.

S. C. Carrillo now has the roof on his new house and it presents a neat appearance.

Several cases of small-pox are reported at Snowflake. It is said to be of a light form.

The quarterly conference of the St. Johns Stake, of the L. D. S. church, will convene here on the 22d and 23rd of this month.

Mr. Saunders of the thriving town of Holbrook is here engaged in doing survey work for the Lyman Land Company.

Prospects are very good for early grass as there is a good deal of dampness falling right now.

The Herald office is in receipt of some scenic views of Yuma, Arizona, compliments of Prof. A. H. McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thomas are confined to their beds, Mrs. Thomas is suffering with rheumatism and Mr. Thomas has a bad case of pneumonia.

Sheriff Peralta left Wednesday for Phoenix, accompanied by his wife.

From all appearances St. Johns will have a good many more houses in the near future as there are many who contemplate building as soon as the weather will permit.

Fritz Schuster is home from his trip to Los Angeles and is looking all the better for his vacation. Fritz says, he is glad to be back although he had a very pleasant time while away.

If you see ~~it~~ in the Herald, it's OK.

Mr. and Mrs. Homrighausen of Springerville were here for a day this week.

E. I. Whiting, the busy man of the Cash store, spent a few days at the Whiting saw-mill this week.

Duane Hamblin of Eagar, who was here to attend court Monday, left Tuesday for Ramah. N. M. Mr. Hamblin has bought a farm at Ramah, and we are informed that he intends to make his future home there.

Word was received here Monday evening that one foot of snow, had fallen at Eagar during the day. That is some snow, and the prospects are fine for plenty of water and good crops for the coming season.

The Herald is in receipt of a letter from one of Apache County's old residents and school teachers, Prof. A. H. McClure, who is now located at Yuma. He wishes to be remembered to his many friends in Apache County and especially to the school marms. Mr. McClure is now engaged in the real estate business and is making good at this business as he does with everything he undertakes.

Messrs. H. R. Emery and W. I. Burk all of Alpine were in the city this week. They report a great deal of snow at Alpine, being from two to three feet on the north hill sides.

R. H. Bloomfield, Paris Ashcroft and Rulon Ashcroft of Ramah, N. M., who passed through our city one day last week on their way to Alpine for a grist-mill arrived here Monday on the return trip. They left here the day following for their homes at Ramah where the mill will be installed for the purpose of making flour from immense wheat crops raised at Ramah and surrounding ranches.

The case of Duane Hamblin vs. J. P. Rothlisberger, to quiet title to a small piece of land in Eagar, occupied the attention of the Superior Court Monday. The trial lasted into the night, 10 o'clock. Attorney Greer represented the plaintiff and Attorney Overson the defendant. A big number of witnesses for both parties were examined, and the attorneys fought every inch of the ground for their clients.

Tomasita Jaramillo, was adjudged insane, Monday, and was sent to the asylum this week.

Maurice A. Raban received his Certificate of Citizenship in the Superior Court last Tuesday.

The many friends of Dona Maria Garcia, wife of Don Jose Garcia, are highly gratified to see the lady out again after a severe illness of more than three months.

The Armijo Bros. are putting up a big wire fence around their ranch on the Medinosa, where they keep their stock and slaughter pen for their Meat Market in town.

Thos. Phelps and family came down Monday morning from their home in Springerville, in their auto and returned home in the evening. Mr. Phelps stated that when he left in the morning about four inches of snow lay on the ground and still snowing.

Ben Brown, Sr. was in town last Monday on a business trip, and also as a witness in court. Mr. Brown has seen a big development in this country during his residence here. Autos are his means of traveling now, whereas 35 years ago he had just a common everyday pony to ride.

J. P. Rothlisberger, the proprietor of the big flour mill of Round Valley and a successful farmer of that vicinity was in town this week. We, all of us, ought to have more of his native brand of flour to make into biscuits, tortillas, cakes and pie dough—we'd feel better.

Dr. Pearl Udall arrived home last Thursday from England, where she has been for the last four months practicing osteopathy and visiting with her brother, David Udall who is there on a mission in the interest of the L. D. S. church. While there she visited many of the interesting parts of that country, among them were Westminster Abbey and a Cathedral which was built in the 11th century and many other ancient churches and castles, for which the old world is famous. She also visited the scenes and old homes of her parents and grandparents and found relatives there who were glad to meet their American relatives. Miss Udall is glad to be at home again and her many friends here are more than glad to have her with them once more.
